Website Terms & Conditions

(iii) Access to 2 additional Q&A calls. Access will be delivered at the end of your course.

(iv) Access to the Client/Student Only Facebook group

I provide accountability, inspiration, business growth tips/support and marketing tips/support.

My intention in offering this course is to help business women find a new way to show up on Instagram for their business based on my own experience and that of my clients in regards to online marketing.

MY RESPONSIBILITY

I have a Bachelor of Commerce with majors in marketing. I have been supporting women in online business since October 2015. My responsibility is to show up on live calls in an energetically wholesome state where I can support business women to create content in a loving way with a view to grow their business, deliver their marketing and reach a larger audience. This is based on my own business strategies and the strategies I use with my 1-1 clients. I also take responsibility to stay as up to date as possible with the marketing tools I am teaching, to be kind and to look after my physical needs so that I can deliver a high quality service.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITY

Please ensure you are seated comfortably during our calls and that you have plenty of water and fresh air before and during calls. Your wellbeing is your responsibility and your business can not grow if you are not looking after your self.

PROBLEMS

This program is intended as a support service to growing your business. Your business situation will not change if you keep taking the same actions you were in the past. Your actions need to change for your results to change.

I know from experience that these changes can happen in a sustainable way, gradually, over time and with loving support. All you need to do is have clarity about what you want to achieve and some insights from your actions in the past. If you show up and take consistent action, your business will grow and change. Come to calls. Ask questions. Decide on action steps and take those actions. Report back to us and then go again.

My main concerns with the course are that sometimes in a change process I see these patterns:

Abdicating responsibility

Not showing up

Old patterns that are challenging to shift

Ingrained resistance

These patterns worry me because I really want to see you succeed but these patterns are outside my control. You need to commit to the choice for change. I cannot make it happen for you.

SUITABILITY

This program is best suited to a smart woman who can get things done. You are great at what you do and have some ideas about marketing & content but you get lost in the noise and “should do’s” of the online marketing industry. You can get things done once you have clarity and purpose.

This course is not for you if you want me to fix all of your problems without taking responsibility and if you can’t respect my personal boundaries around work hours and contact methods.

My preferred contact method is email. You will also get to speak with me on live calls. My work hours are 10am to 3pm, Monday to Friday, Sydney timezone.

Intellectual Property

There is no part of this website that is copyright or trademarked. The business name Connected Marketing AU is a registered business name with the Australian Government Business Registration Service (BRS).

While none of the content and services are copyright or trademarked I wonder why you would want to use my content as your own? If you choose to do so, you may like to link back to this site, or perhaps we can have a chat and collaborate on a course or masterclass together.

I hope that you find joy and delight in your unique talents and gifts and choose to share them with the world.

Payment Terms

FORMS OF PAYMENT

I gladly accept PayPal & credit card payment however my preferred method is direct bank transfer.

PAYMENT PLANS

I am happy to discuss payment plans if you require that. Some offers, like the Group Program are monthly payments and most courses are intended to be affordable so perhaps no payment plan is required. But please do get in touch with me if you require a payment plan.

SECURITY POLICY

I accept online payments. I use Stripe and PayPal. This website has an SSL certificate which encrypts (scrambles and codes) your details for security protection. I use the third-party providers Stripe and PayPal. I do not keep a record of your credit card details.

Delivery

LiveWebinar for course calls and group program calls

I use a software called LiveWebinar for group mentoring calls and course calls. This is a lot like Zoom except that you don't need to download anything ahead of time. You will simply click a link in a Facebook group, email or message and be directed to the LiveWebinar meeting room.

LiveWebinar is similar to Zoom but a little different. I acknowledge that it may feel clunky at first. Remember when you weren't familiar with Zoom? And how challenging that could be at times?

I expect you may have similar feelings when learning and using LiveWebinar at first.

If we cannot connect using LiveWebinar I may be able to find a Zoom workaround for you.

Returns Policy

Online Course

ORDER FULFILMENT POLICY

My courses do not have a maximum number of participants. I anticipate you will be able to purchase one if you desire. If I am unavailable to deliver live calls associated with a particular course due to sudden, unforeseen illness, accident or family responsibilities I will refund you in full.

CHANGE OF MIND

I do not offer a refund for change of mind so I encourage clients to choose carefully. I am willing to meet with the you to discuss your concerns and negotiate a win/win solution. A meeting can be arranged via my scheduling tool, and would take place via Zoom. We will you meet for a maximum of 30 minutes. This is available for up to 7 days after purchase.

Consumer Guarantees

MINOR PROBLEM

A minor problem with my product or service is one that can be easily fixed. I would love to fulfil my obligation to repair the product or fix the situation free of charge within a reasonable time. You can simply contact me at natashaberta@me.com with details of the fault and I will do everything in my power to remedy the issue.

Minor problems may include and are not limited to:

A PDF that refuses to open

A link that expires while your internet is down

A course platform you can't access

Natasha Berta Connected Marketing

Website Terms & Conditions

A link to a video that doesn't work

A password protected website page you can't access

The internet cutting out half- way through a call

I am ill and unable to attend a scheduled meeting

You are ill and unable to attend a scheduled meeting

Note, if an illness continues for a considerable time, this could become a major problem.

Please simply contact me immediately if you feel there are minor problems with my products and services so I can set things right as soon as possible. Some things I can do include replacement and refund. I am also happy to chat with you to find a win win situation for us both. This would be a 30 minute (maximum) Zoom meeting up to 40 days after purchase.

MAJOR PROBLEM

A major problem is one that would have prevented you from purchasing if you had known about it in advance, where a product or service is unfit for its stated purpose and cannot easily be fixed within a reasonable time, is significantly different from the sample or description, is unsafe or creates an unsafe situation or where you have told me you want to achieve a certain result and the product or service fails to achieve that result or cannot achieve it within a reasonable time.

When a service has a major problem, you are entitled to choose what happens next. You can choose to:

- cancel the contract and demand a refund;
- seek compensation for the difference between the price paid and the services actually provided.

Refunds will exactly match the amount paid and be provided in the same form (eg via Paypal, direct deposit, cash etc).

If you find that you have a major problem with my product or service and demand a refund you can contact me via email with details of the problem.

I will take up to 7 days to consider your request. I will notify you of my preference for resolution.

If we do not agree we would attempt a face to face meeting. You can find a time for that meeting here: <https://connectedmarketing.com.au/30-minute-freebie-chat/>. That meeting would be a maximum of 30 minutes on Zoom where we could attempt to find a win-win arrangement to suit us both. If that is not achievable I would progress to find suitable mediation as per the Dispute Resolution information below.

If you cancel a contract for service by telling me, either verbally, in writing or by any other means you are entitled to a refund but you may not be entitled to a full refund. The amount you are entitled to depends on whether some or all of the services paid for were unsatisfactory or not provided.
